Employees Right to Correct Information Form

THE RIGHT TO REVIEW SAFETY PERFORMANCE RECORDS: You have the right to review the records provided by your previous employers. You must make your request to review in writing and submit it to your prospective employer no later than thirty (30) days after employment begins or notification of employment is made. You will be provided with the records within five (5) business days of receipt of your written request. If the prospective employer has not received the records at the time of your request, then the five-day period to provide access will begin on the day the records are received from the previous employer. If you fail to arrange to pick up or receive the requested records within thirty (30) days of when they are first made available to you, then your right to review is considered waived.

THE RIGHT TO HAVE ERRONEOUS INFORMATION CORRECTED: If you believe there is an error in the records, you have the right to have your previous employer correct the error. Send your request for correction to the previous employer that provided the records in question. The previous employer must either correct and forward the record to the prospective employer or notify you within fifteen (15) days of receiving your request that they do not agree the record is in error. If the previous employer corrects and forwards the record as requested, that employer must also retain the corrected information as part of your safety performance history record and provide it to subsequent prospective employers when requests for this information are received.

THE RIGHT TO REBUT DISPUTED INFORMATION: If the previous employer does not agree that information in the records provided is in error, you may rebut the disputed information in writing and send it to the previous employer with instructions to include the rebuttal in your safety performance history file. Within five (5) business days of receiving your rebuttal, the previous employer must; forward a copy of the rebuttal to the prospective employer; append the rebuttal to the your safety performance information and include it as part of the response for any subsequent investigating prospective employers for the duration of the three-year data retention requirement period. You may submit a rebuttal initially without a request for correction, or subsequent to a request for correction.

I certify that this application was completed by me and that the information provided is a correct, complete and true representation of the facts as known to me.
